

ADEME in facts and figures

Name : French Environment and Energy Management Agency

Status : industrial and commercial public agency, under the joint supervision of French Ministries for Ecology, Sustainable Development and Spatial Planning (MEDAD) and for Higher Education and Research.

Mission : encouraging, supervising, coordinating, facilitating and undertaking operations with the aim of protecting the environment and managing energy.

Priority areas : energy, air, noise, transport, waste, polluted soil and sites, and environmental management.

Staff : 820 employees (including 359 engineers).

Organization : three central departments in Angers (49), Paris (75) and Valbonne (06); 26 regional branches, three representative offices in France's overseas territories and one representative office in Brussels.

2009 budget : €638 million (a €557-million action budget and an operating budget of €81 million).

"ADEME & Vous", quarterly newsletter in english

ADEME publishes a newsletter aimed at companies and local and regional authorities. Each edition features the latest news in all the agency's areas of involvement plus an in-depth report on a specific topic, in addition to discussion on current major issues, points of reference, practical information, and field reports that give readers the opportunity to read first-hand accounts from partners on exemplary initiatives.