

Veolia Environnement is world leader in environmental services.

With more than 270,000 employees the company has operations all around the world and provides tailored solutions to meet the needs of municipal and industrial customers in four complementary segments: water management, waste management, energy management and passenger transportation.

Veolia Environnement recorded revenue of €25.2 billion in 2005.

Veolia Environnement is the only global company to offer the entire range of environmental services in the water, waste management, energy and transportation sectors.

Veolia Environnement has been creating global and integrated solutions for public and private sector clients the world over for more than 150 years.

The quality of Veolia Environnement research, the expertise and synergies developed between their teams, mastery of the public-private partnership model and their commitment to sustainable development have made them a benchmark player in major environmental matters.

Veolia Environnement serves public authorities (municipal, regional and central government agencies), as well as business and industry. To meet its customers' financial and operational needs as precisely as possible, the company has evolved an original business model founded on the delegated management of public services for public authorities, and outsourcing for industrial clients.
